

Baseball / Softball Highlights for Week of June 14 to 20, 2008

During this rainy week, several games were cancelled because of the bad weather. Or other games were played, but under trying conditions, battling all sorts of precipitation, including drizzle, downpours, and even hail. Here are the highlights for the games that were completed.

7-8 Softball

June 14

Southside 3 – Ladybugs 0 – On a cold, wet Saturday morning, the SCBA Ladybugs gave their best efforts but came up short against Southside. Alicia Germann earned game-ball honors with aggressive hitting and solid defense. Alexandria Fazio and Michaela Reed led the offense, while Caitlin Bish, Kayliana Mock, and Julia Reed led the Ladybugs defense. All the Ladybugs gave a valiant effort during a rained soaked game.

9-10 Softball

June 19

St. Mary's 9 – NCAAA #3 2 – Battling through the rain, the Junior Lancers earned another victory as they defeated NCAAA#3 by a score of 9-2. Carrie Kidder (3-for-3) and Brittany Nowatzki (2 doubles and 2 RBIs) again led the offense. Amber Curtis was super on the field as she recorded three assists in the second inning. Molly Scarpello, Heather Piskadlo, and Julia Taboni were great on the mound, yielding only two runs on 8 hits and only 6 walks.

13-14 Softball

June 14

Integrity Office 9 – Grasshopper Landscaping 4 – Amber Czaja led the way offensively going 3-4 with 2 doubles & 4 RBIs as Integrity Office improved to 3-0, defeating Grasshoppers Landscaping, 9-4. Abby Prezioso pitched 5 innings, giving up 3 hits while striking out 7.

9-10 Baseball

June 16

Steuben Food 10 – Crystal Printing 4 – Gum Ball size hail did not stop two tough teams from playing an exciting game, as Steuben foods defeated Crystal Printing by a score of 10 to 4. Crystal Printing had a good showing at bat with hits by Jacob Tomaszewski, Josh Katashuk, Alex Zientara, and Ryan Biedron. But the incredible fielding of the hard playing Steuben Foods was the key factor in the game.

June 20

Ground Level Construction 30 – Mollenberg Betz 13 – Under the lights, Ground Level Construction was led with Alex Drilling (3 for 3) along with a great inning of pitching. Alex Blanch pitched an inning and went 2 for 4 at the plate. Patrick Rome hit 3 for 4 with 2 doubles and a single. Aaron Nowak pitched a strong inning and had a single, double, and triple. Lucky #13 Eddie Halady went 3 for 4 including a solo home run.
