

Highlights for Week of May 16-22, 2009

5-6 Tee-Ball

May 16

Gateway Recycling vs. 2060 Auto Parts – For 2060 Auto Parts, Allison Ross took command of the pitcher position with many great stops and throws to first base. On the other end, Ryan Teichmann had 2 great hits one going into the outfield. For Gateway Recycling, the team played a great game and all were hitting and fielding like champs - Especially Emily Blamowski and Alex Dobson that were stellar at the plate.

7-8 Baseball

May 16

Upstate Niagara 20 – Great Lakes Station 13 – Both teams had a good game with strong fielding and batting by both. On Upstate-Niagara, strong batting won the game with the game ball going to Joshua Knight for all an outstanding effort on both sides of the ball Bellevue Vol. Fire Dept. 16 – Goldfish Marketing 11 – With windy conditions and a few rain drops, Bellevue FD was able to hold off Goldfish Marketing in the last inning 16-11. Both teams played well both offensively and defensively. On Goldfish Marketing's team, solid hitting performances came from Jordan Ciesla, Nicholas Fryburger, and Justin Krzemien. Carl Burns stunningly went 4-4 and made some well defensive plays.

Genesee Pediatrics 22 – Miltons Restaurant 17 – All the players from Genesee Pediatrics had a fantastic hitting day led by Nicholas Wojciechowski two home runs and the hitting of Tyler Sadoro.

May 22

Great Lakes Station 18 – Goldfish Marketing 18 – Both teams played very well respectively and powered plenty of hits offensively. Carl Burns continues his hitting streak for Goldfish Marketing going 4-4. In addition, a solid game came from Collin Zlotek also hitting 4-4. Nick Cybulski, Jordan Marks, and Noah Starzynski also showed their power going 3-3. Great Lakes Station showed much improvement since their last game. This game was very entertaining and fun to watch. All the kids did a great job. Today our MVP was Joe Flannagin

9-10 Baseball

May 16

Jays-Son Construction 14 – Bank of America 0 – A very good opening day for Jays-son Construction crew. Fueled by outstanding pitching from Austin Mackowiak, Jeremy Cych, and Matt Tredo, held a well coached Bank of America team to 6 hits, striking out 10 and playing very good defense, including a double play to end the game. Our batters were on fire as we cranked out 4 HR (M. Tredo, Mackowiak, & 2 by Cych), 2 big Triples by Brett Owens, while Ryan Mock, Mackowiak & Cych went 3-3, and Tyler Kent went 2-2.

Gutter Helmet 13 – New Era Baseball 2 – A very good game was played by both young teams. They both played well and should be very proud of the effort.

R&J Service 12 – Sahlens Packing 2 – It was a tight 2-2 game until the bottom of the 5th when R&J produced ten runs. Leading the hitting for R&J were Aaron Shaw (double and triple), Ryan Voight (2 for 3 with double), and Alec Schreckengost (2 for 2). Solid defensive play by Tyler Giglio, Zack Reinhardt, Tyler Sekuterski, and Aaron Nowinski keeping everything in front of them. Strong performances on the mound from Ryan Reukauf, Aaron S., Alex Adimey, and Mike Reukauf who combined for 10 strikeouts and only seven hits. Josh Adimey and Brandon Voight had five Ks and no hits.

May 18

Gutter Helmet 11 – Master Pizza 6 – Gutter Helmets bats were on fire once again led by Austin Cacciotti and Nick Baker. For Master Pizza there were some great performances. Nick Majewicz had a great game pitching two strikeouts. In the field there some great put-outs by Joe Dombrowski, Matt Klos and Andrew Bauer. Key hits by Carson Kistner, Thomas Find your latest action photos at goldfishphoto.com.

Dombrowski and Calvin Morales charged the offense.

May 21

Jays-Son Construction 4 – R&J Service 3 – For R&J, strong pitching performances from Josh Adimey, Zack Reinhardt, Ryan Reukauf, and Tyler Sekuterski combining for 9 strikeouts and giving up four hits. Alex Adimey had his bat on fire with 2 doubles and an RBI. Tyler S. had a 2 RBI single, and Alec Schreckengost and Josh A. each had singles. Great team play defensively lead by Aaron Shaw, Ryan Voight, Aaron Nowinski, Tyler Giglio, Brandon Sandel, Mike Reukauf, Brandon Voight, and Austin Pilley.

May 22

Bank of America 4 – Master Pizza 3 – A very well played game by both teams that came down to the last batter for BofA to pull out a 4-3 win. Great defensive game by both sides with fantastic pitching. A big hit early in the game by BofA player Tyler Bobenczyk gave his team the lead. From there it was a pitching and defensive duel with both team making big defensive plays. The BofA pitching trio of Potter, Carlone and Schoenhardt combined for 10 strikeouts in the game.

Highlights for Week of May 16-22, 2009

11-12 Baseball

May 16

Crystal Printing 15 – Fowlers 10 – Team Crystal Printing played very well against the hard throwing Fowlers Team. Adam Noyes for Team Crystal Printing made a great catch in center field. Dillon Synder and Joe Marrone caught a solid game behind the plate and Joseph Ficsher played solid at third and in the outfield. A blazing double hit by Adam Bauer helped Crystal Printing record its first win of the season.

Mollenberg Betz 14 – Panthers Baseball

11 – The Mollenberg-Betz team continued to play well and defeated a strong Panthers team 14 to 11. For Mollenberg-Betz, Justin Canady pitched 3 solid innings. At the plate, Ryan Kilijanski went 2 for 3 and Daniel Picciano was hot going 2 for 2. The entire team also played outstanding defense to secure the win.

May 16

Reeses Raiders 12 – Crystal Printing 10 – Adam Bauer, Josh Schaner, Jacob Tomaszewski and Stan Zolnowski had all had good at-bats for team Crystal Printing. Joe Marrone and Alex Zientara both pitched several solid innings for Crystal Printing.

May 22

Panthers Baseball 20 – Ground Level Construction 13 – Anthony Walter, Nick Parucki and DJ Pilley each had strong innings on the mound for the Panthers. At the plate Pilley tripled, Parucki went 3 for 3 and Tyler Measer tripled highlighting the Panthers big bats.

Please Note: All Cheektowaga Softball Leagues are using SCBA to report highlights. They are included in this sheet.

7-8 Softball

May 16

Ladybugs 10 – Southside #1 0 – Caitlyn Bish went 3 for 3 with 2 RBI to earn gameball honors in the Ladybugs second victory 10-0 over Southside. Alexis Reed, Kayliana Mock and Laura Germann all scored twice. The girls played another sound game both offensively and defensively.

May 18

CleveHill #1 7 – Ladybugs 3 – The Ladybugs suffered their first loss to a very good Cleve-Hill team 7-3. The Ladybugs held a 3-2 lead when Cleve-Hill exploded for 5 runs in the 4th inning. Laura Germann earned gameball honors with 3 successful plate appearances. Caitlyn Bish had another strong game in the field and recorded another double. Alyssa Nichy also had multiple hits for the Ladybugs.

May 20

NCAAA #1 10 – Fowlers 5 – The Fowlers girls put in another all around good game with Miranda Herkey going 3 for 3 and scoring twice, Madeline Szwed went 4 for 4 as lead off batter. Rebecca Koteris went 3 for 4 and scored a run. Marissa Stockmeyer, Amanda Okie each went 2 for 4 and Meghan Hilton 2 for 3. All the Fowlers girls put in a good defensive effort.

9-10 Softball

May 16

Integrity Office 11 – Southside #2 7 – Integrity Office prevailed in a close contest. Emily Savage lead Integrity, scoring two runs, while Morgan Bakowski added three hits and 2 RBIs and Sierra Michaels pitched three strong innings. Michaela Reed also chipped in with a double while Kaitlynn Rowland made a clutch catch with bases loaded to thwart a Southside rally.

Southline #1 8 – Donald Brundage Architect 3 – Under threatening skies the girls of Donald Brundage Architect took to the field and gave it their all. Aires Davis recorded her first hit of the season and Zoe Kelly later scored the first run of the season for the team. Kaitlyn VanDette had an outstanding game defensively at first base. The team showed improvement in all areas and are looking forward to their next game.

May 21

CleveHill #1 11 – Southside #1 4 – CH's great pitching effort was led by Madi Fermo, with 5 K's. Katie Netti also pitched well. Alexa Catalino made her pitching debut, striking out both batters she faced. Katie led the team in hitting, going 2 for 2 with a two-RBI double. Emily McIntosh, Madi Fermo and Desyre Lee each had two hits, and Megan McIntosh, Kathryn Skorka and Hannah Palmer added hits of their own. Madi Fermo caught a liner and doubled up the runner for CH's first double play. Other great plays were made by Katie Netti and rookie Marissa Diem.

Southline #1 7 – Southside #2 0 – Grassos Girls (Southline #1), Sara Snyder and Chelsea Simmeth started the game with each having hit a double. Shelby Simmeth, Hannah Fuerst, Ashley Crawley and Abby Tomasik each scored a run. Great defense by the Grassos Girls. They had 1 double play and 6 put outs.

