

Game Highlights for Week of May 17 to 23, 2008

7-8 Baseball

May 17

Bank of America 12 – French Pub Restaurant 8 – The French Pub team braved the cold and rain but ended with a close loss. Jacob Bloom went 2-for-3, and Jordan Korcsis went 2-for-3. Adam Peinkofer reached bases all 3 innings, as did Nick Majewicz.

Milton's Restaurant 15 – Master Pizza 11

It was a very competitive game for Milton's Restaurant and Master Pizza. Milton's batters combined for 27 hits with Luke Mortellaro and Aaron Potter going 4-for-4 at the plate. Erik Muscoreil and Aaron Schaefer were 3-for-3, and Kevin Bethge was 3-for-4. It wasn't all about offense for Milton's; defense was also well balanced with Luke Mortellaro owning the second inning with three force outs at third and a nice play to Austin Tant at second. Jacob Warden had a great put out at first, and Daniel Babiarz made some good stops at shortstop and catcher. Kevin Bethge and Aaron Potter once again make a nice pair in the infield with two put outs at first. The bats are starting to come around for Augustine Arricale, Thomas Dombrowski, and Justin Siejak. For Master Pizza, Dominic Occhino had 3 big hits: 2 singles and a double with two runs batted in and scoring three runs. Tim Corless had 4 singles while scoring one run himself and Cameron Oneil and Dominic Letteri had two singles scoring two runs each. Star of the game Max Diaz had one big double with two runs batted in and scoring once.

May 20

Bellevue Volunteer Fire Department 20 – French Pub Restaurant 14

The highlight of the game for French Pub was a solo home run by Nathan Maines. He also had 4 total hits. Tyler Griffin, Jacob Bloom, Evan Lenhard, and Nick Pietrzak had 4 out of 5 hits. Defensively, Nick Majewicz started at first base for the first time and was a natural. Jordan Korcsis, Connor Goff, and Brandon Sandel are showing major improvement as a solid unit in the outfield.

Photo courtesy of Craig Zlotek – goldfishphoto.com

9-10 Baseball

May 17

Grandpa's Bulldogs 3 – Ground Level Construction 2

This game featured a pitchers' duel. Grandpas Bulldogs edged GLC in a very close game that saw GBs hold off a late surge by GLC. Once again the Bulldogs were anchored by solid pitching from Nick Baker, Austin Mackowiak, and Matt Tredo. Runs were contributed by Nick Baker, Jeremy Cych, and Zack Pieszala. All in all a very entertaining game.

Crystal Printing 19 – Mollenberg Betz 1

Team Crystal Printing's Dillon Snyder, Stan Zolnowski' and Tyler Tant had a big day at the plate. Ian Wittmer also drove in his first run of the season with a hard hit

(continued on page 2)

7-8 Softball

May 19

NCAAA #2 18 – Ladybugs 12 – The Ladybugs played a great game in very cold conditions. Michaela Reed, Alicia Germann, Emma Rataczak, Nicole Cefaratti, and Jillian Dombrowski all had multiple hits. The Ladybugs defense also recorded many outs in the field led by Caitlyn Bish.

9-10 Softball

May 22

Southline #3 8 – Gutter Helmet 6

Excitement was in the air, as well as a chill...it was opening day. Team Gutter Helmet (Big Green) kicked off the season against Southline #3. In a hard fought back and forth game, Gutter Helmet came up a bit short in an 8 to 6 loss. Kendra Ciezki and Allyssa Watson combined for 7 strikeouts in 3 innings pitched as well as combined defensively to account for the other outs. Offensively Gutter Helmet was led by Jennifer Lew with a single, RBI, and run scored and Kirsten Brady who drew 3 walks and scored 2 runs.

11-12 Baseball

May 17

Sahlen's Packing Co 14 – Wrona Chiropractic 12

In a back and forth game the Wrona Chiropractic Raptors came up short against a tough Sahlens team 12-14. For the Wrona Raptors the game ball went to Jonathan Rehner for making four outs from 2nd base. Two outs were to first with Sam Roger on the bag and two outs to second. Jonathan also drew two walks and scored two runs. Hunter Snyder made a nice leaping grab at 3rd. Anthony Feeney went 3-4 at bat and pitched 2 solid innings. Conner Tumiel had a homerun.

Southline VFD 10 – Panthers 3

The Panthers struggled against a strong Southline team. Anthony Walter, Mike Waterman, and Marcus Salvatore

(continued on page 2)

Game Highlights for Week of May 17 to 23, 2008 - continued

9-10 Baseball (continued)

line drive into left field. For Mollenberg-Betz, Kyle Teichmann cracked a standup double in the 5th inning. Tyler Boyd had a great game and made some nice stops in the outfield. Justin Lederhouse was scooping up anything that was hit to him in the infield, and Nick Jeziorowski was solid as a rock on defense.

Reeses Raiders 14 – Steuben Foods 6

– A good ball game with some nice hits and great defensive plays between Reeses Raiders and Steuben Foods. Stephen Gosciak made his first appearance on the mound with 3 Ks in one inning of work. Raiders defense made several key outs lead by Tyler Schneider, Austin Pilley, Zack Reinhardt, Tyler Sekuterski, Tyler Giglio, and Brandon Voight. The Raiders hitting was lead by Austin Lee with a double and a single, and Stephen Gosciak with two singles.

May 22

Grandpa's Bulldogs 7 – Mollenberg

Betz 6 – An exciting and close game that came down to the wire was played by both teams. For Mollenberg-Betz, Ryan Kilijanski had a great game pitching 2 solid innings and going 3 for 3 at the plate. Justin Kimble, Alan Pomietlarz, and Tyler Boyd each went 1 for 2 at the plate. Daniel Mascio and Derek Pieczynski had some solid hits that were turned into outs by a tough Bulldogs defense. The whole MB team also welcomed back Matt Dodoiak after being on IR for a couple of weeks. Great game guys! For the Bulldogs, Matt Tredo shook off a rocky 1st inning pitching where he hit 2 MB players (sorry guys) and had a solid 4th and 5th inning to close out the game. After falling behind 6-1, the Bulldogs finally found their bats and had a 6-run 4th inning to cap off the comeback. Brett Owens popped a nice double and had a key out defensively. Matt Tredo had a double, while Jim Burke and Christian Tredo added two singles each. Austin Cacciotti made the most of his opportunities, scoring twice in the game.

Photo courtesy of Craig Zlotek – goldfishphoto.com

11-12 Baseball (continued)

pitched well on a rainy, soggy day. Defensively the Panthers looked pretty good. Tyler Measer had an ESPN highlight film catch in deep center field. Mike Waterman relayed a deep ball from center field to Brad Kozuch who lased the ball home to a waiting Marcus Salvadore who made the tag at the plate, eliminating a HR. Anthony Walter went 2-4 at the plate

May 19

Panthers 8 – Wrona Chiropractic 7

– In a Very tight defensive game Wrona Chiropractic Raptors came up short against the Panthers 7-8. For the raptors Trevor Wrona received the game ball for three innings pitched with 0 runs scored, 5-Ks and four hits to the mound and all four out at first to Andrew Wroblewski and Sam Roger. Trevor also made a stop at 2nd with another out at first to Sam Roger. Dante Ross did a fine job catching with a dropped third strike out at 1st to Hunter Snyder and an out on an attempted steal at 3rd to Anthony Feeney. Hunter Snyder also did a good job on the mound in the 7th with no runs and only 7 pitches. Sam Roger pitched the 6th with 3Ks no walks and no hits.

Parents & Coaches:
Don't see your team's highlights here?
Don't forget to have someone submit them by going to the league's SportManager Sight!

Look for more Highlights next week as more leagues get under way!

Find your latest action photos at goldfishphoto.com password: scba